"...every day here is fulfilled"

Danlin from Guangdong University, China

"[...] I had three Digital Media courses and two independent studies during this half year as an exchange student. Students could choose a topic, finish the topic alone or join a team to complete it and then make a presentation at the end. Every course gave me new experiences and horizon. Half year was long. I studied, travelled and met friends from all over the world. Every day here is fulfilled. Half year was short. It seemed like I came yesterday and I went back today. Please cherish the days in Bremen."

"I can't stop missing Bremen University!"

Guizadan from MUST, Macau

"I can't stop missing Bremen University! What I miss most of all in Macau is the feeling I had at University of Bremen, I felt free! In the classroom the teachers and classmates come from different countries, are of different age, and have different life experience. ... It is possible for everyone who wants to study to apply for the university. For example, I had a classmate who has two children and a job. Another woman worked for many years after High School and one day she realized that knowledge is important to her and now she is a freshman at university. In Bremen, you can get all kinds of knowledge and make different friends, even including professors! I hope you can get the chance to study in Bremen! You won't regret it!"

"...the university is so international"

Brittany from University of Ottawa, Canada

"I've had a great experience during my internship in Bremen. I find the city is large but maintains a small town charm, perfect for students. For me, the best part has been meeting new people from all over the world, since the university is so international. Overall, the university and the city have been extremely welcoming, and I would definitely recommend Bremen for anyone who is interested in coming to Germany."

"...the activities in the University were so useful..."

"From my experience in Bremen, I think the people are very nice. They try to communicate with other people. The events and activities in the university were so useful. They offered me the opportunity to get to know other international people from around the world. I could learn more about languages and cultures of many countries.

"... to make this year one of great personal growth and adventure..."

Rachel from Dickinson College, USA

"My study abroad year at the University of Bremen contained so many different facts and aspects that came together to make this year one of great personal growth and adventure. Academically my favorite aspect that helped expand my range of study and my thinking was the wide variety of courses offered at the University of Bremen. ...Some of my favorite classes include a study of the different dialects of German, examining how fear and marginalization are created through literature, and an in depth study of my favorite German author Cornelia Funke."
