

Wageningen in'to Languages

I'm going to be an International student in Wageningen, where do I start? Hi there! Welcome to Wageningen! You'll have an amazing time. We're here to help you get the most out of your time in Wageningen. By learning English or Dutch, you will broaden your horizon. Learning English can help you get in touch with the Dutch! A great start to your stay in Wageningen!

Why learn a new language or improve your communication or study skills? Are you challenging yourself by learning a new language? Or do you want to improve your communication or study skills? You will benefit from this training throughout the whole of your career! Check out all the opportunities to improve your language skills alongside your study curriculum and challenge yourself! All courses are offered at least three times a year.

Why start a course with Wageningen in'to Languages? The Wageningen University campus is a highly international environment. It's good to be part of an international community by speaking more than one language, especially with so many different cultures and languages spoken on one campus. Wageningen in'to Languages provides language and communication courses for everyone both on and off campus. Start a course in any language or skills today, for your resume, an adventure abroad, travelling or just for fun! Join us today! WUR students will receive a discount on all the courses given, check the website for more information.

Who are they for? Wageningen in'to Languages provides language courses to WUR students, PhD candidates and staff and external clients. We have courses for all levels, from beginners to advanced students.

Which courses are available? Wageningen in'to Languages provides language and communication courses. Our most popular courses are: English, Dutch, French and Spanish. Because of our collaboration with Radboud in'to Languages, students at Wageningen UR can take advantage of an even wider selection of language courses, such as: German, Chinese, Italian, Japanese, Russian, Portuguese, Polish, Arabic, Swedish and Dutch sign language.

I am an international student, can I join every course? YES! All courses are taught in the target language, supported by English if necessary. We offer a broad range of English courses to work on specific skills, such as grammar or pronunciation. Also, if you want to learn about the Netherlands, you can join a Social Dutch course. In this course you will learn about typical aspects of Dutch culture and how to hold a basic conversation to interact with your fellow students. The next round of courses starts in September! Choose your favourite language and join us!

'The teacher motivates the students constantly to learn and practice French through interactive lessons, videos and assignments. If you ever wanted to pick up a foreign language, this is the time!' - Jessica Bernard, MSc in Urban Environmental Management
