

What are the implications of the drastic changes in international cooperation and the dismantling of USAID?

Expected implications for development, peace and security.

SKOV and Ipsos-Facto Seminar on Monday April 14, 16.00 – 18.30 h

Venue: Arboretum church, Delhorstpad 6, Wageningen.

Programme:

- 16.00 h Church open, tea or coffee.
- 16.30 h Opening by SKOV chair Cor de Jong.
- 16.35 h Keynote by Prof. dr. ir. Joris Voorhoeve, on political implications, including peace and security.
- 17.00 h Keynote by Prof. dr. ir. Thea Hilhorst, on the humanitarian implications.
- 17.25 h Questions and debate, facilitated by dr. ir. Ellen Mangnus, focussing on what it means for us, scientists, organisations and civilians in Wageningen.
- 18.00 – 18.30 h Informal being together, with drinks.

Please let us know your participation by sending an email to:
croeper@kpnmail.nl

Biopics:

Prof. Dr. Ir. Voorhoeve is former Minister of Defence, em. Professor at various Universities in the domain of International Organisations and co-chair of the Global Partnership for the Prevention of Armed Conflict.

Prof. Dr. Ir. Hilhorst is Professor of Humanitarian Studies at the ISS, the Hague, and leading the project Humanitarian governance: accountability, advocacy, alternatives.

Please note: SKOV and Ipsos-Facto have decided for a venue outside the WUR campus because of the WUR strike on 14 April against the cuts on education.

