YOUR NEW HOME

Oregon offers you all of the variety of the Pacific Northwest region. Whether you love walking on the beach or skiing in the mountains, the Cascade Mountain Range and Pacific Coast offer scenic and recreational activities like nowhere else in the US.

Corvallis has a population of 56,000 and is consistently recognized as one of the best places to live in America. Home to many local, one of a kind shops and restaurants, Corvallis is ranked as one of the safest, greenest and best college towns in the US.

ABOUT OREGON STATE UNIVERSITY

Oregon State University extends a warm international welcome and invites you to become an active, thriving member of our community. You are joining a university that emphasizes experience and equality in all that we do, recognizing the rich diversity that our students, faculty, staff and alumni contribute to the campus. At Oregon State, we have a legacy of helping our students be successful by setting a standard for excellence in international student advising, services, and all around support.

The opportunity to study at Oregon State University is a highly rewarding experience for students who in turn contribute to the cultural diversity and academic robustness this university prides itself upon. You will gain an education that sets you on a path for leadership, entrepreneurship, innovation, and creativity, while being supported by our outstanding international student services team. Our students graduate with a broad base of knowledge, as well as practical skills to prepare them for a life making positive contributions at work, at home and in their communities.

OSU provides opportunities for all students beyond the classroom

There are countless ways to get involved at OSU! Here are some clubs and organizations that students can get involved in to further their employability and have fun:

- Entrepreneurship Club
 - » The Entrepreneurship Club provides a space for student entrepreneurs to come together to share their innovative new startup ideas and find business partners. This club also hosts entrepreneurship speakers, runs innovation workshops, and organizes the annual Oregon Cup funding competition.
- Finance Club
 - » The Finance Club is an opportunity for students to learn from actual experience in trading and investing. Students also meet many industry professionals through guest lectures and an annual trip to Portland.
- Investor's Enterprise
 - » The Investor's Enterprise is a driven and passionate community of Oregon State University students that collaboratively pitch and develop inventions or creative ideas. They provide a medium for Oregon State University students to work together in order to produce inventions that will advance human civilization on all fronts including technological, societal, and overall welfare.
- 3D Printer club
 - » The 3D Printer Club provides opportunities to learn about the development and application of cutting edge 3D printing technologies. They also provide workshops to hone prototyping and fabrication skills and to design new 3D printers to push the technology to its limits.
- 16xOSU
 - » 16xOSU is an international organization focused on social entrepreneurship. An example of 16xOSU work includes collaboration with TERREWODE, an NGO based in Uganda that fights for women's rights and health issues. 16xOSU is supporting TERREWODE in building out their business model.

Housing Services - Living in the heart of Beaver Nation!

Living on campus will be one of the best experiences during your time in the US. All the study abroad students at Oregon State University are encouraged to live on our welcoming, supportive, and exciting campus. You'll find many academic resources in the halls including tutors, academic coaches or even study groups. The housing staff will be available to you anytime during the day if you need help. Living in the dorms is a great way to make new friends!

Everything you need for a successful academic year is right here. Your room is fully furnished with a bed, nightstand, desk, chair, lamp and wardrobe. Arriving late? No worries. You'll find a linen package including bed sheets, pillowcase, pillow, blanket, towel and washcloth. Residence halls offer a variety of amenities to make your stay more comfortable. Single gender floors and wings are available on campus as well as prayer and spiritual spaces. Halal food options are also available in all dining centers.

STUDENT LIFE

Activities beyond the classroom!

Having a healthy lifestyle is important for success in your studies. There are many facilities on campus for you to get exercise. Intramural sports are very popular. If you'd like more competition, club sports are student-run organizations that participate in regional and national leagues and tournaments. You'll also have access to the Dixon Recreation Center, which is included in your tuition. Its open late at night so you can fit a workout into your busy schedule or simply enjoy the hot tub.

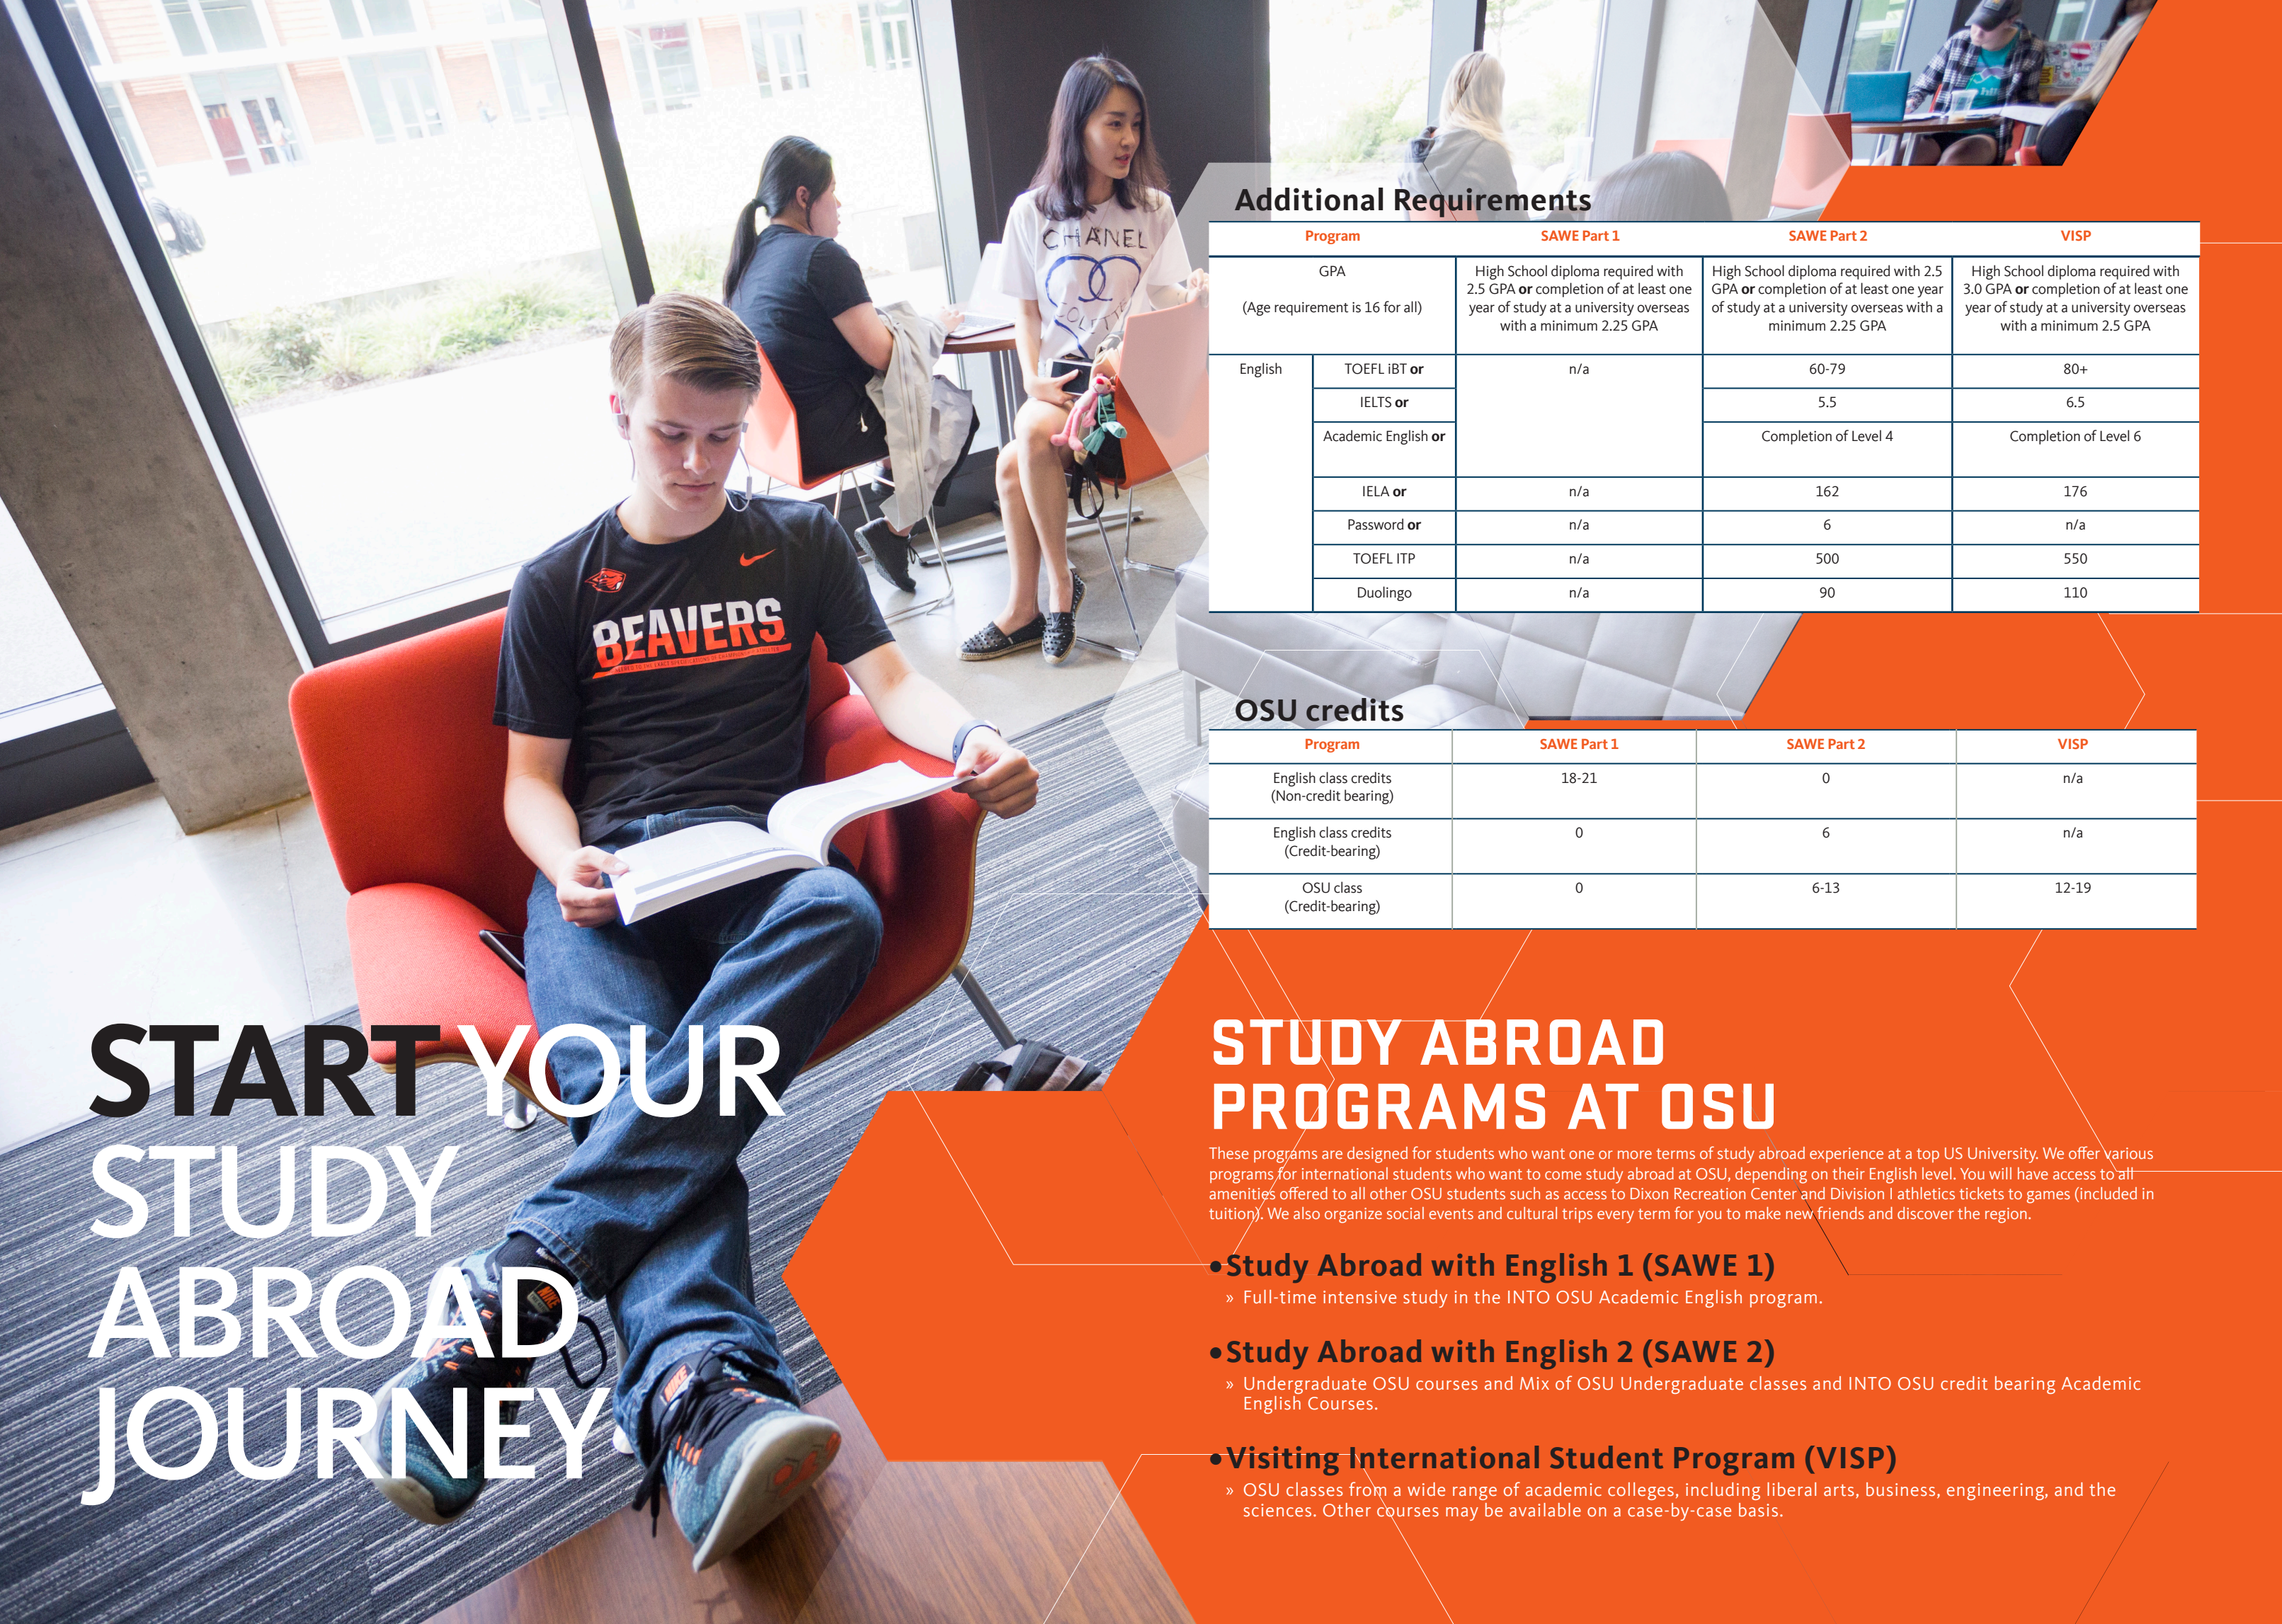

OSU also has over 400 clubs, societies and organizations to get involved with and show your school pride. Whether you want to join a sorority or frat, make an impact through humanitarian projects or join a student chapter within your field of study, the university has something for everyone. As a member, you'll learn valuable life lessons while making lasting friendships in whichever program you choose.

International dining around every corner

Finding something delicious to eat on campus is easy. OSU offers over 30 restaurants, including several that feature international cuisines. Have dietary restrictions? Don't worry, menus in our dining centers are designed to accommodate needs such as food allergies, halal, vegan, vegetarian, gluten free, and other dietary restrictions. Best of all, your dining plan is automatically loaded on your student ID so you can use it anywhere on campus to purchase food. With about a dozen coffee shops located on campus you're never too far away from fresh coffee, tea, sandwiches, pastries or other grab-and-go items.
