At the university many colloquia take place as part of BSc and MSc theses, internships or scientific symposia. Attending colloquia helps you to prepare for your own colloquium, to get ideas for your thesis research and to put the thesis research into a broader scientific and societal context. Therefore, we think it is important to learn from these colloquia.

As a thesis student at BEC you are obliged to attend a certain number of colloquia, before you can complete your thesis /internship. The number to attend depends on the number of credits of the thesis:

- 12 ECTS : 6 colloquia presentations
- 24-27 ECTS : 15 colloquia presentations
- 30-33 ECTS : 18 colloquia presentations
- 36-39 ECTS : 21 colloquia presentations

What you should do:

- Visit the required number of colloquia or more
- Ask the present supervisor for a signature in the table on the next page to prove that you attended the colloquium presentation. You have to obtain the signature directly after the colloquium.
- Make a copy of your final list and take this to Jeanette Lubbers when planning the date for the oral exam. Keep this paper for your own administration.
