

Symposium Global One Health, Past, Present, and Future

24 Oct 2019, Wageningen Campus, building 101, Gaia 1&2

Program outline

12:30 – 12:40	Opening	Marcel Zwietering/ Wim van der Poel
12:40 – 14:00	Outcomes 'Global One Health' Research theme 2015-2018 (20 min per topic)
	"Midge gut microbiome"	Leo van Overbeek
	"Risks livestock manure"	Björn Berendsen
	"SocioEconomic factors Emerging zoonoses"	Manon Swanenburg
	"Effect of chronic endotoxin exposure on respiratory health of broilers"	Annemarie Rebel
14:00 – 14:20	Break, poster viewing
14:20 – 15:50	Workshop 'Social Nature of Global One Health' - Presentation of the results of interviews with project leaders (10 min) - World Cafe (65 min) - Future steps (15 min)	Marcel Verweij, Caro-Lynn Verbaan, Shanice Campbell
15:50 – 16:10	Break, poster viewing
16:10 – 16:30	Pitches Outcomes Global One Health research theme 2015-2018 (5 x 3 min)
	"Improving health and environmental sustainability of European diets using a benchmarking approach"	Sander Biesbroek
	"The Role of mosquito coinfections in Zika"	Sander Koenraadt
	"Modelling synergies of human and environmental health"	Jeroen Groot
	"The role wildlife in the dispersal of AMR"	Nico van den Brink
	"Reduction of Obesity and Related Diseases by Targeted Nutritional Treatment".	Harry Wichers
16:30 – 17:00	Wrap up, Discussion 'Future of 'Global One Health' research'	Marcel Zwietering/ Wim van der Poel and Policy maker, Ministries of Public Health and Agriculture
17:00 – 18:00	Drinks, poster viewing	