

Introduction Annoek van den Wijngaart

My name is Annoek van den Wijngaart. I graduated from WUR in 1994 and studied Nutrition. Immediately after graduation I moved abroad to work on improving the nutrition situation of vulnerable populations.

I lived and worked in Vietnam, Zambia, Thailand and Indonesia. I worked for several UN organizations, NGO's and private sector. Since August 2019 I am based in Singapore where I am self-employed as an International Nutrition Consultant.

During my time in Indonesia I helped set up the Wageningen Alumni Association in Indonesia and now looking forward to be actively contributing to the Alumni group in Singapore.
