

Travel and Stay

Located in the charming university town of Wageningen, the Postharvest Unlimited Conference & Postharvest Ornamentals Symposium will take place at WUR Campus. With its beautiful natural surroundings and historic architecture, Wageningen is easily accessible by public transportation from various destinations in the Netherlands and abroad.

This page provides all the information you need to get to the WUR Campus and navigate around the town, so you can make the most of your visit.

Below you will find some relevant information, tips & tricks - especially for our international guests - to travel to Wageningen, The Netherlands.

Public transport

Wageningen Campus can easily be reached by public transport. Wherever you want to travel, you can get there easily and comfortably by taking the train and bus.

Coming from Schiphol airport, best is to take the train to Ede-Wageningen. Trains to Ede-Wageningen run nearly every 10 minutes. From train station Ede-Wageningen you can take bus C3 that stops among others at Wageningen Campus (bus stop Campus/Atlas or bus stop Campus/Plaza) and the city center of Wageningen (bus stop bus station Wageningen).

OV Chipcard

In order to travel by public transport (train or bus), you need an OV Chipcard. You can buy the OV Chipcard at a NS ticket machine that can be found at every railway station in The Netherlands. The cost of the card is 7.5 euros, plus the budget for travelling. The card has to have a minimum of 20 euros for travelling. For information about how to obtain an OV Chipcard, click here.

How to get around in Wageningen?

Getting around in Wageningen is easy and convenient, thanks to the town's efficient public transportation system.

- Buses run regularly throughout the town, providing easy access to all the main locations. You can purchase single-ride tickets or day passes from the bus driver or at the train station. If you plan to use public transportation frequently during your stay, it's worth considering purchasing an OV-chipcard, a rechargeable smart card that provides discounted fares on buses, trains, and trams throughout the Netherlands.
- Biking is also a popular mode of transportation in Wageningen and is a great way to explore the town's natural surroundings. You can rent a bike at WUR CAMPUS, contact: Bike Center Hussein Wageningen
