

Oasis of واحة السلام Wahat al-Salam
Peace נווה שלום Neve Shalom

Communications and Development Office

Samah Salaime, Director Communication and Development, Wahat al-Salam Neve Shalom

Samah Salaime is a member of Wahat al-Salam Neve Shalom, a social worker, community activist, feminist. She is the founder of AWC -Arab Women in the Center, an NGO which seeks to promote the status of women in the cities of Ramla, Lod and Jaffa, and to combat gender-based violence against women, particularly in Arab society. This year Samah was chosen for the second time by the Israeli National Newspaper, "Yediot Achronot" as one of the 10 most influential social activists in Israel. Samah was awarded her B.A. and Master's Degrees in Social Work from The Hebrew University. She is a graduate of the prestigious Mandel School for Educational Leadership. She is an accomplished journalist with articles published in Hebrew, Arabic and English. She is a regular contributor to +972 Magazine. Samah has a very active role within the Wahat al-Salam Neve Shalom Community and is a leading voice in Israel's Arab community. She has served as WASNS Director of the Educational Institutions and recently became Director of the Wahat al Salam Neve Shalom Communication and Development Department.