

3rd Food Law Winter School

Are you a law student and want to stand out from the rest?
Are you a food science student and are you curious about the relation between science and law?

An opportunity to try a food safety law course at Wageningen University

2 ECTS

Winter School in Food Law

During the Winter school you will have the opportunity to take a closer look at the regulations governing food. You will be introduced to the basic principles of European food safety policy such as the "farm to fork" approach.

• What to expect?

During these 5 days you will have an intensive programme. Daily lectures and workshops by internationally recognised leading experts in the field ensure provision of in-depth analysis on core issues on food regulation, such as European Food Law, American Food Law, Food Law and Economics etc. The course will deal with different regulatory regimes such as in the USA and the EU. Special emphasis will be given to team-working tasks where participants will work together to solve a problem using law sources.

• What is expected from me?

To have good command of English.

To attend all lectures and activities, because you will definitely learn a lot!

To read the study materials in advance, so you will be prepared for the lectures!

• Where will I stay?

There will be a room provided by students of Wageningen University, so you will stay in a student room in Wageningen!

• What about the food?

Meals (breakfast, lunch and dinner) will be provided by Wageningen University and the sponsors of the Winter School.

• What else to expect?

During the lectures you will meet professionals from different fields, who will provide in-depth analysis on food law and regulation as well as on further career opportunities in the field. There will be a tour around University Campus and the city of Wageningen to get a grasp of what it is like to be a student of Wageningen University. Additionally, a visit to a Career Event on Wageningen University Campus is included in the programme.
