The two organizations are already engaged in a series of projects, such as building evidence around resilient farming systems in the DRC and Niger; engaging youth entrepreneurs in post-harvest technologies in Myanmar, Nepal and Timor Leste; developing learning journeys in a variety of topics; and developing Mercy Corps’ strategic priorities in the livestock sector. This is the beginning of a fruitful collaboration!