WURcard for students

This leaflet is about the WURcard, the Wageningen University & Research (WUR) organisation card which contains your personal details and determines your rights within the organisation.

The WURcard for students can be used within Wageningen University & Research as:

- Identification as a student of Wageningen University & Research (in combination with your proof of enrolment);
- Library Card;
- Identification for access to WUR buildings;
- Sports Card;
- Ewallet (payment method).

In principle, you receive the WURcard only once and you can use it until you are no longer registered at Wageningen University & Research. The WURcard for students is valid only in combination with your proof of enrolment at Wageningen University & Research. Your proof of enrolment shows your period of registration at WUR. You will receive this proof of enrolment every academic year that you are registered. The WURcard is the property of WUR and must be returned when you leave the organisation. If you withdraw your enrolment from WUR or if you do not register again at the beginning of a new academic year, then you must return your WURcard to the Student Service Centre (SSC).

Loss, Theft or Damage

If your WURcard is lost, stolen or damaged, you must report this to the SSC. When making this report, you must be able to identify yourself (a valid Passport, ID Card, Driver's Licence or Dutch Student OV-card).

In case of loss or theft, the SSC will immediately block your WURcard.

After this, there are two options:

- 1 If you can present a police declaration that you reported the theft, you will receive a new WURcard from the SSC at no charge.
- 2 If you cannot present a police declaration as referred to above, then you will have to pay €15 in order to receive a new student WURcard from the SSC.

If the chip in your WURcard is no longer usable due to damage, then you will receive a new card from the SSC at no charge, unless the damage is clearly the result of careless use.

Sports

In order to use the sports facilities of the Sport Centre de Bongerd (SCB), you must pay a fee for each academic year (or a portion thereof). After payment of this fee, your WURcard will be linked to your sports facility rights.

For more information about the basic package of sports facility rights, rates and the sports facilities themselves, go to www.wur.eu/sportscentre. Any additions or changes to your rights can be arranged directly with the SCB.

Student ID Card

As a student ID card, the WURcard is valid only in combination with a valid proof of enrolment at Wageningen University & Research. You will receive your proof of enrolment from the SSC by regular mail. You must keep your WURcard and your proof of enrolment together.

Library

All students have the right to borrow books from the libraries of WUR. You can use your WURcard to borrow books.

Access to WUR Buildings

With your WURcard you can obtain access to buildings or parts of buildings of Wageningen University & Research that are, as a rule, only accessible for staff. Your right of access is provided by the building manager, often at the request of your Study Advisor or Programme Director.

eWallet

The eWallet is a virtual wallet that contains credit. The WURcard is required to identify yourself at a payment point and to be able to pay (printers, vending machines).

You can top up the credit on your eWallet using the WebReloader from Inepro or by using the MyInepro-app on your phone (Available in GooglePlay and APP Store) Dutch bank account holders can pay via iDeal, whereas non-Dutch bank account holders use PayPal or Credit Card. You can top up your eWallet with €10, €20, €30, €40 or €50. Please bear in mind that transaction fees are charged for every top up. If you top up often, you might end up paying exorbitant transaction fees. So think carefully about the amount before you top up! If you lose your WUR card – please report this immediately.
