Fees Pre-master's 2021-2022

Academic year 2021-2022

WAGENINGEN
UNIVERSITY & RESEARCH

Students who cannot be directly admitted to a Wageningen University master's study programme because of deficiencies in their previous education, may eliminate these deficiencies by following a pre-master's programme prior to their master programme.

A Wageningen University pre-master's programme consists of a maximum of 30 credits and is determined individually. The programme has to be completed within one academic year.

The tuition fee you pay depends on the scope of your pre-master's programme (in European credits=EC) and your nationality:

- Pre-master's students who fulfil the nationality* requirement pay €36.13 per EC (this equals 1/60th of the statutory tuition fee 2021-2022 = €2168,-);
- Pre-master's students who do not fulfil the nationality* requirement pay €311.67 per EC (this equals 1/60th of the institutional tuition fee 3 2021-2022 = €18,700,-).

For more information on the nationality requirement, please see next page.

For example:

| Scope of your pre-master's programme | Tuition Fee | |
|--------------------------------------|-------------------|----------------------------|
| | EU/EFTA nationals | Non-EU/ Non-EFTA nationals |
| 30 EC | € 1,084.00 | € 9,350.00 |
| 24 EC | € 867.00 | € 7,480.00 |
| 18 EC | € 650.00 | € 5,610.00 |
| 15 EC | € 542.00 | € 4,675.00 |
| 12 EC | € 434.00 | € 3,740.00 |

Please note:

- It is not possible to pay the pre-master's fee in instalments.
- There will be no restitution of the fee paid, should you decide to terminate your enrolment as a pre-master student before you have obtained the credits you have paid for.
- If you want to take additional subjects (other than in your pre-master's programme), you will have to enrol as a regular bachelor student and pay the tuition fee according to your situation, taking the nationality and degree requirements into consideration. Please see the information on tuition fees 2021-2022 for bachelor students or contact the Student Service Centre (ssc@wur.nl).
