Take care of your OV-chipkaart

We advise you to take care of your OV-chipkaart. It is a contactless card with a chip and antenna inside. These are not visible from the outside. Tips:

Keep your card in your purse or wallet, or another suitable protective place. This will mean your card becomes damaged less quickly and it will therefore last longer.

Do not damage or bend your OV-chipkaart. This can cause your card to stop working or not to work correctly.

Only use your OV-chipkaart for the intended purpose, checking in, checking out and loading credit.
