

Online Master's students

Payment of Tuition Fees

Academic Year 2021-2022

First year students Online Master's

From October 1, 2020 onwards, you can submit a request for enrolment for the academic year 2021-2022 as first year student for an online master's programme at Wageningen University via Studielink (<http://www.studielink.nl>). To be enrolled as a student, you will have to pay tuition fees 2021-2022.

You can read more about how you can pay your tuition fees on the website 'Methods of payment of tuition fees 2021-2022'.

You can fill in your payment details in Studielink from 1 May to 31 August 2021 (under the tab 'Payment'). Information on how to complete these can be found on 'Filling in payment details in Studielink'.

First-year online master's students who need a residence permit for the Netherlands and have to pay institutional tuition fees receive an invoice after they have been admitted to the master's programme.

Senior students for online Master's (re-enrolment)

Please note that you have to re-enrol as a student each academic year to continue your master's programme.

You can send in your request for re-enrolment for the academic year 2021-2022 for your online master's programme between May 1 and August 31, 2021 via Studielink (<http://www.studielink.nl>).

To be enrolled as a student, you will have to pay tuition fees 2021-2022. You can read more about how you can pay your tuition fees on the website 'Methods of payment of tuition fees 2021-2022'.

When completing your request for re-enrolment in Studielink, you need to fill in and confirm your payment details in Studielink (under the tab 'Payment'). This is necessary for the payment of your tuition fee 2021-2022. Information on how to complete these is available on 'Filling in payment details in Studielink'.

Disclaimer

No rights can be derived from this information. Conditions may be subject to change depending on Dutch legislation and Wageningen University policies.

